†Old Log Hut. 2. E₂. D to E₂.....Emerson. 35
Down by the river our log-hut stands.

Old Maid's Lament. 3. G. L to E. A com^a Song for the Ladies Sung by the Continentals.
Towns. 36

†Old Man Dreams. 4. D. C[#] to D. Base Song with mixed Chorus.....Webster. 40

I'm dreaming a dream this afternoon.
Of days accounted olden:
When laughter played a silver harp.
And youthful smiles were golden.

A magnificent song with chorus. It is one of Webster's happiest efforts, and bids fair to rival in popularity some of his older and finest songs.
We recommend it, feeling sure it will please.

†Old Musician and his Harp. 3. E₂. E₂ to F.
Baritone Song with mixed Chorus.....Higgins. 30

Soon I'll be among the blest, where the weary are at rest;
Soon I'll tread the golden shore, singing praises evermore.

This has been quite successful. It is a touching little ballad of great beauty.

Old Scotland, I love thee. 3. F. E to F...Scotch. 30

†Old Veteran. 3. A. D[#] to E.....Kneasse. 35

It was a Sabbath morn, the bell had chimed for church.

Another beautiful gem from the pen of Mr.
Kneasse, the popular author of "Ben Bolt." To get the correct edition ask for PETERS' copy, by Kneasse.

*Oh! let me kiss the Baby. 3. A₂. D to F.
Song with fine Chorus.....Hays. 50

God bless the little darling!
May life be long and sweet,
And may no thorny pathway
Be traversed by its feet.

May sorrow be a stranger
To such a tender heart:
Oh! let me kiss the baby,
One kiss before we part.

The words and music are by Will S. Hays, and, like all of his songs, it is beautiful. We have now issued twelve of his ballads, and every one has been a decided hit. They are as follows: "We parted by the River-Side," "Nora O'Neal," "Sha-mus O'Brien," "Katie McFerran," "Mary's Waiting at the Window," "Mary, oh! come back to me," "Write me a Letter from Home," "Little Sam," "Take me back Home," "You've been a Friend to me," and "Darling Kate."

Oh! meet me now. 2. E₂. C to E₂. A cheerful Serenade for Baritone voice.....Jillson. 30 to C. For Alto or Bar. From Rossini's opera of Cinderella. 20

†One by One they crossed the River. 3. E₂. E₂ to E₂.....Towns. 30

One by one they crossed the river,
Members of our household band.

A touching little home song. Sung by the Continental.

†Only going Home. 2. G. D to E.....Webster. 35

They are going, only going, Jesus called them long ago.

A sweet little sacred song by the celebrated author of "Lorena."

†On such a Night as this. 2. F. C to F....Pitts. 30

On such a night as this, O God!
We pleading turn to thee.

An easy song of more than ordinary beauty.

Onward! 3. G. A spirited Quartet..... Webster. 35

Oh! our watch on the Sea we'll keep, (Song of the Mermaids.) 4. E. Song or Duet for Mez. Sop.

for mixed Voices.....De Roode. $1 00

With piano or organ accompaniment.

†Our Banner of Glory. 4. A. Quartet....Peters. 40

Our banner of glory is waving on high,
Its stars are as those of the even;
And its stripes like the mingling hues of the sky
When the morning is blushing in heaven.

The poetry is by the well-known author of "E Pluribus Unum." The music is in keeping, and of a character well calculated to please.

†Our Bonnie Blue-Eyed Nell. 2. E₂. E₂ to E₂.
Song with mixed Chorus.....Webster. 35

A willow's drooping branches, with a quiet, solemn grace,
Are softly, gently swaying o'er a lone, sequestered place.

A pleasing little ballad by the well-known author, J. P. Webster.

Our (Father and Mother.) 2. E₂. E₂ to E₂.....

†Our lost Ellalie. 2. D. D to D. With Chorus.
Martin. 30

Lay her where the woadbine clingeth
To the dark magnolia tree.

One of a series of "Heart Melodies."

†Our Mother. 3. E. Duet. Sop. and Alto.....
Webster. 35

We weep, yet tears should have no place,
Our mother did not die;
The angels sighed for her embrace,
And took her to the sky.

A beautiful little heart-duet in Webster's best style.

†Our Mother's Grave. 3. C. E to G....Howard. 30

A popular ballad by the author of "Cottage on the Lea." It has also a fine chorus.

Female Voices. A fine School Piece.....Schirner. 35

Parting Song. 4. E₂. Quartet.....Perkins. 30

As sung by the Perkins Vocalists.

†Patriot Mother's Prayer, (Protect my Boy.) 2. F.
Mixed Quartet. Webster. 35

Father of love, infinite God,
Supremest Ruler over all,
Thou hearest the young raven's cry,
And notest every sparrow's fall:
I trust him to thee, my heart's best joy!
Protect him, Father, bless my boy!

There are but few who have heard this beautiful chant that will ever forget it. It has proved a decided success.

Paul Vane; or, Lorena's Reply. 2. G. D to E....
Webster. 35

The years are creeping slowly by, dear Paul,
The winters come and go;
The winds sweep past with mournful cry, dear Paul,
And pelt my face with snow.

It is seldom you find two such songs as "Lorena" and "Paul Vane." They are both beautiful, and stand side by side on almost every piano. No singer should be without a copy.

Piero, dearest, this tempting Cake now behold, (Piero mio.) 5. D Min. C to E₂. Arranged by.....Dressler. 35

A lively little song for soprano from "Crispino
e la Comare."

†Poor Willie's all alone. 2. D. C[#] to E. Webster. 35

A touching little heart-song by our favorite writer.

Popping Corn. 2. G. E to E.....Webster. 35

And there they sat a popping corn,
John Stiles and Susan Cutter;
John Stiles as stout as any ox,
And Susan fat as butter.

A splendid comic song. Quite a favorite.

†Popping in at Pudding-Time. 3. G. C[#] to E....
Tully. 35

The poetry written by J. H. Wilton, by whom it has been sung with great success.

†Prairie Mound where Ella sleeps. 2. G. F[#] to E. A favorite Song and Chorus.....Martin. 35

There's a darling little angel
Sleeping 'neath the prairie soil.

Quite pretty and exceedingly popular. It is a song that can not fail to please.

A fine baritone song with mixed chorus.

†Protect my Boy! (The Patriot Mother's Prayer.)
2. F. With mixed Quartet.....Webster. 35

One of the loveliest of Webster's lovely songs.

Putting on Airs. 1. G. D to E.....Higgins. 30

If you do as folks of fashion do,
You've got to "put on airs."

A comic song to suit the times. It is immensely popular.

†Railroad Song. 3. A₂. E₂ to E₂. With Chorus.
Higgins. 30

I am thinking, John, of that sweet time
When you and I were boys.

This celebrated song has met with great success.

Rain on the Roof. 3. E₂. F to E₂. Song with mixed Chorus.....Clark. 35

Hear it patter, tinkle, murmur,
As it falls upon the roof.

One of the finest and most successful efforts of Mr. Clark. It is sung with immense success at the social concerts of Ossian E. Dodge. We can recommend it to those in want of a nice song.
